

Historical Society of Montgomery County Annual Luncheon 2018

Joseph Ambler Inn, 1005 Horsham Road, North Wales, PA

Program: "Sidetracked: The Mysteries We Uncover When We aren't Looking for Them." Three stories unraveled:

- The Norristown man who became a "refreshment dealer";
- The mystery of English inventor, Edward Ingleton;
- And the story of James Morris Johnson, convicted of murder for causing a train wreck at Valley Forge in 1949.

Saturday, November 10, 2018, Noon-3:00 p.m.

Luncheon Choices: Chicken Florentine, Herb Roasted Filet of Salmon, or Pan Seared Pork Tenderloin

$45.00 per person; Reservations due by November 5, 2018

For reservations or information contact HSMC at: 610-272-0297, <http://www.hsmcpa.org> or contact@hsmcpa.org.