

Life Without You Someday...

The Reality Every Special Needs Parent Needs To Consider

Tuesday, May 21, 2019 from 6-8pm

Pottsgrove High School Library

Sign up www.eventbrite.com/e/life-without-you-someday-tickets-60135088669

Any questions, email pgrovevillage@gmail.com

Join the following speakers and panelists for an informative night.

Amanda Hundley is Quality Coordinator at The Arc Alliance. The organization provides supports coordination services to people of all ages with autism and/or intellectual disabilities in Berks, Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery, and Philadelphia counties.

Rebecca A. Hobbs, CELA is an associate attorney with the law firm O'Donnell, Weiss & Mattei, P.C. with offices in Pottstown and Phoenixville. She focuses her practice on special needs planning, estate planning, estate and trust administration, Veteran's benefits and elder law. Rebecca serves on the Special Needs Law Section Steering Committee through NAELA. As a member the Pennsylvania Bar Association (PBA), she also serves on the PBA Charitable Organizations Committee and the PBA Legal Services to Persons with Disabilities Committee.

Thomas A. Kalejta, CFS®, ChFC®, RFC®, AEP®, CASL®, AIF®, ChSNC® is the author of Building Wealth, Protecting Dreams and the president of Kalejta Financial Management with offices in Sanatoga and Collegeville. He is a Pottstown native and has chosen to raise his family in Pottstown! Tom's son Ethan, who has autism, attends Pottsgrove High School. Among other memberships and affiliations, Tom serves as a member of the board at Shady Hollow Assisted Riding and Pope John Paul II High School. Tom is part of a pilot program of financial advisors who are leading the way in special needs planning. He is passionate about helping families plan for the long term future of their children with special needs and personally understands the unique challenges that confront them. Attendees will receive a free, signed copy of his book.

The evening will conclude with a town hall style Q&A session.