

Historical Society of Montgomery County Gallery Presents:

“Norristown Remembered”

The Art of Frank Batson

FEBRUARY 21, 2017, - APRIL 29, 2017

Norristown native Frank Batson’s paintings are inspired by his memories of Norristown and the surrounding area from the 1940’s, ‘50’s, and ‘60’s. Many of the buildings and places are long gone, but through his art, they are brought back to life. Baston paints from both photographs and personal memory.

Free and open to the public.

Hours: Monday & Thursday 10 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

Tuesday & Wednesday – 1:00 p.m.-7:30 p.m.

For Saturday Hours – 610-272-0297 or contact@hsmcpa.org

Historical Society of Montgomery County, 1654 DeKalb Street, Norristown, PA, (hsmcpa.org), is handicapped accessible.