Congratulations to Dr. Susan Angstadt, Director of Pupil Services in Methacton, on being awarded an Apex Award by the Methacton Education Foundation and on her upcoming retirement! Methacton's new Director of Pupil Services will be Dr. Gravinese, the current MHS principal. Dr. Gravinese will also be the SEA Home & School's new administrator.

1. We had another extremely informative Home & School meeting on November 29th. Dr. Dani Fowlston, Supervisor of Special Education for grades 5-8 discussed how inclusive practices are being implemented and filtered into the middle grades. Her "Supports & Services" handout is attached here as well as included with the November meeting minutes on our website. Our next Home & School meeting will be January 24th. Mrs. Corina Todd, Supervisor of Special Education at MHS will be discussing how supports & services and inclusive practices are accessed and implemented there.

2. Our next community presentation will be on January 18th via Zoom. Stay tuned for topic and presenter details.

3. Join us on December 15th at the KOP Mall for our annual Kendra Scott fundraiser! The SEA H&S will receive 20% of all in-store purchases from 6-8 that evening, as well as online orders made December 15-17 using the code GIVEBACK-FAGMQ.

4. Dates for the PA Inclusion Collective's Erik Carter Series Fostering a Sense of Belonging for Persons with Disabilities: Classroom, School and Community have been confirmed for February 7, 14 & 21. This series will be entirely via Zoom. Details on registration will be available in the new year.

5. The Special Education Alliance Home & School needs a Post Prom Committee! All parents and guardians of students attending Methacton School District are part of our SEA Home & School community. Please consider joining us in our first year as Home & School contributors to this special event. Email SEAMethacton@gmail.com to let us know you're interested.

6. The MCIU will be holding a Resource Expo on December 5th. Learn more at <https://learn.mciu.org>.

7. Don't forget to check out SEAofMCC on Facebook to find announcements and flyers about upcoming community events and programs! Some current highlights are The Right to Education Local Task Force's presentation on Social Emotional Development on December 12th and The Blue Envelope Program to assist special needs drivers currently being implemented in Montgomery County.
