A Modern Summary

Act 1

Act 1, Scene 1 - Theseus and Hippolyta are preparing to get married. Egeus interrupts the preparations because he is upset that his daughter Hermia wants to marry Lysander and not Demetrius. Hermia and Lysander decide to elope and tell their plans to Helena, who then decides to go tell Demetrius.

Act 1, Scene 2 - A group of actors meets to begin preparing to put on a play for the celebration of Theseus and Hippolyta's wedding.

Act 1, Scene 3 - Oberon and Titania argue over the mortal boy that Titania is taking care of. Oberon decides to spell Titania into loving the next creature she sees and directs Puck to help him get the necessary flower to do so. While waiting for Puck to return, Oberon sees Demetrius and Helena, and decides to use the love spell on Demetrius so that he will fall in love with Helena.

Act 1, Scene 4 - Oberon spells Titania while she sleeps, and Puck spells Lysander while he sleeps, after mistaking him for Demetrius. Lysander wakes up and falls in love with Helena, while Hermia is left alone and frightened.

Act 1, Scene 5 - The actors meet to practice their play. During a break, Puck transforms Bottom by putting an ass's head on him, which scares the other actors. Titania wakes up and sees Bottom like this and falls in love with him, ordering her fairies to take care of him.

Act 2, Scene 1 - Puck explains to Oberon how he transformed Bottom, and Titania fell in love. Oberon realizes that Puck has spelled the wrong man and puts the love potion on Demetrius' eyes. When he wakes, he sees Helena and falls in love with her, but Helena thinks that both men are making fun of her. Hermia is heartbroken that Lysander no longer loves her, and Demetrius and Lysander fight over who loves Helena more. Puck tricks the lovers into tiring themselves out and puts the correction potion on Lysander's eyes so that he may fall back in love with Hermia.

Act 2, Scene 2 - Oberon finally removes the love spell from Titania and the two love each other once more. Theseus and his royal court discover the lovers sleeping on the ground. When they begin to describe the previous evening, they remember it as a dream, and all they know for sure is that Lysander loves Hermia, and Demetrius loves Helena. Theseus decides that all three couples will get married at his wedding feast.

Act 2, Scene 3 - The actors mourn the loss of Bottom and the fact that their play cannot go on. Bottom returns and gives the good news that they will get to act before Theseus.

Act 2, Scene 4 - The wedding feast has occurred, and the actors are the entertainment for the evening. After their performance, once everyone has left, Oberon, Titania, and the fairies come to bless their marriages.

A Midsummer Night's Dream - Director's Notes

It has been quite awhile since my last experience with Shakespeare. As I started to prepare for our show, I was grateful we had decided to use the No Fear Shakespeare text, which allowed our students and staff an opportunity to take a quick peek at what Shakespeare meant while they were saying what he wrote. I couldn't help but think, "Wow - I wish more of life had this feature!"

Fortunately, our students embraced the challenge of truly using their facial expressions, physical gestures, and vocal intonations to get across this story that we all know and love so well. At its heart, I see A Midsummer Night's Dream as a slapstick rom-com that encourages us to take ourselves a little less seriously, something I know I could certainly use. The 50s and 60s era Beach Theme certainly helped us get that lighthearted feel. It's hard to be stressed when you find yourself whistling Do You Believe in Magic? all day, or laughing along with our cast as they perfect their Wall impersonations or test out just how silly they can be while under a magic spell.

Once again, I am in awe of not only the talent we have within our Methacton community, but the dedication and drive. Though they be but high schoolers, they are fierce. Our students worked diligently to understand their characters and their dialogue, and then figure out the best way to translate all of that to you, our audience. Our crew was on top of every scene change or prop addition that I threw at them, and put it all together flawlessly.

I am so grateful to get the opportunity to work with such an amazing Company. Congratulations to our entire cast and crew on an amazing production!
