Nurture our talents

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

It is the policy of the Methacton School District to provide equal opportunity in all its programs and activities and in its employment practices. No pupil, employee, or other person shall be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be otherwise subject to discrimination in regard to any District program on the grounds of race, color, age, creed, religion, sex, gender, gender identity, genetic information, sexual orientation, ancestry, national origin, marital status, pregnancy or handicap/disability. Every member of the school community is entitled to attend school free from a hostile or abusive environment. Harassment and intimidation will not be tolerated and should be reported in accordance with Board Policy 103, Nondiscrimination in School and Classroom Practices.

For additional information, please contact the Human Resources Office at 610-489-5000.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Students

Students attend and participate in the school program so that they may develop to their fullest potential. With this in mind, pupils are to:

- Display an enthusiastic and supportive attitude toward school and education.
- Make an effort to do their best work.
- Attend school and be on-time regularly.
- Accept responsibility for their actions.
- Respect self, the rights and differences of others, and the right for all to secure an education in an orderly environment.
- Contribute toward maintaining an atmosphere of mutual respect and dignity for all by obeying school rules and regulations.
- Maintain habits of personal cleanliness.
- Respect school property and help to keep it free from damage.
- Recognize that the school staff assumes the role of a surrogate parent in matters of behavior and discipline from time of departure from home until arrival at home as well as during any school sponsored activities.
- Not knowingly possess, handle, or transmit any object that is or can reasonably be considered a weapon on school premises, at any school-sponsored activity, or on any provided transportation to or from a school-sponsored activity.

Parents/Guardians

A cooperative relationship between home and school is essential to each pupil's successful development and achievement. To achieve this, parents and guardians are urged to:

Staff

The staff recognizes their charge in educating the children of the community. To meet this responsibility they are to:

- Plan and conduct a program of instruction that will make learning attractive and interesting.
- Establish professional and cooperative relationships with pupils, parents/guardians, staff, and administrators that promotes the mission of the district.
- Promote a climate of mutual respect and dignity that will strengthen the pupils' positive self-image.
- Recognize and address when student misconduct could be rooted in discrimination or intimidation/retaliation and complete required reporting forms.
- Guide pupils to attain their full potential.
- Teach common courtesies by example.
- Communicate regularly with pupils, parents/guardians, staff, and administrators to promote student success.
- Recognize that some disciplinary problems may result from student academic, social, or emotional frustration or challenges.
- Be cognizant of the needs of pupils while recognizing and reporting negative academic, behavioral or social/emotional concerns.
- Distinguish between minor student misconduct best handled by the staff and major problems requiring the assistance of administration.
- Report to the building administrator any pupils who jeopardize their own safety or the safety of others, or who interfere with the orderly operation of the instructional program or classroom or school.
- Serve as a surrogate parent in matters of behavior and discipline in accordance with Pennsylvania School Code.

Building Administration

As the educational leaders of the school, the administration sets the climate. They are to:

- Lead and evaluate a program of instruction in the school to achieve meaningful educational outcomes.

- Support your child's enthusiastic and supportive attitude toward school and education.
- Support your child's effort to do their best work.
- Insist on prompt and regular attendance.
- Establish cooperative relationships with teachers, administrators, and staff that promotes the mission of the district.
- Provide a place for study and assist your child as needed with their completion of homework.
- Instill upon your child the value of self-respect, respect for others, respect for the law, and respect for public property.
- Cooperate with the school in jointly resolving any school-related matters.
- Encourage your child to take pride in their appearance.
- Inspire your child to participate in school activities.
- Insist that your child promptly bring home all communications from school.
- Assist your child when challenged academically, socially or emotionally and seek assistance from school or community services when appropriate.
- Urge the communication of school matters that support a positive school and community climate.
- Develop a sound and healthy atmosphere of mutual respect and order within the school.
- Assist staff in their procedures, growth mindset, and professional responsibilities within their classrooms.
- Ensure that all at-risk pupils receive appropriate services.
- Develop and implement school procedures and district policy to reduce the likelihood of pupil misconduct.
- Provide opportunities for pupils and staff to approach administration in order to remedy grievances.
- Work closely with parents/guardians to establish positive professional relationships between home and school.
- Utilize all appropriate auxiliary staff and community agencies to assist parents/guardians, pupils, and staff in identifying problems and solutions.
- Establish and maintain building security.
- Assume responsibility for the dissemination and enforcement of the District Discipline Code and ensure that all discipline cases are resolved promptly.
- Ensure fairness, reasonableness, and consistency.
- Address, investigate, resolve complaints with emphasis on underlying discrimination and intimidation/retaliation and complete reporting requirements.
- Comply with district policy, state laws, governing hearings, suspensions, and pupils' rights.
- Teach common courtesies by example.

STUDENT RIGHTS

Exclusion from School – Suspension

- The principal or designee may suspend any student for disobedience or misconduct for a period of one (1) to ten (10) consecutive school days and shall report the suspension to the Superintendent as soon as possible.
- No student may be suspended without notice of the reasons for which s/he is suspended and an opportunity to be heard on his/her own behalf before the school official who holds the authority to reinstate the student. Prior notice is not required where it is clear that the health, safety or welfare of the school population is threatened. The parents/guardians and Superintendent shall be notified immediately in writing when a student is suspended.
- When the suspension exceeds three (3) school days, the student and parent/guardian will be given the opportunity for an informal hearing with the designated school official. Such hearing shall take place as soon as possible after the suspension, and the district shall offer to hold it within the first five (5) days of the suspension, and prior to returning to school.
- Informal hearings shall be conducted by the building principal or designee.
- The district shall provide for the student's education during the period of suspension.

Exclusion from Class - In-School Suspension

- No student may receive an in-school suspension without notice of the reasons for which s/he is suspended and an opportunity to respond prior to the time the suspension becomes effective. The parent/guardian shall be informed of the suspension action taken by the school.
- Should the in-school suspension exceed ten (10) consecutive school days, the student and parent/guardian shall be offered an informal hearing with the building principal. Such hearing shall take place prior to the eleventh day of the in-school suspension.
- The district shall provide for the student's education during the period of in-school suspension.

Expulsion

- Expulsion is exclusion from school by the Board for a period exceeding ten (10) school days. The Board may permanently expel from the district rolls any student whose misconduct and disobedience warrants this sanction. No student shall be expelled without an opportunity for a formal hearing before the Board, or a duly authorized committee of the Board and upon action taken by the Board after the hearing.
- A formal hearing shall be required in all expulsion actions.
- The Board requires that each hearing shall be closed to the public unless the student and/or the parent/guardian requests a public hearing.
- A formal hearing shall not be unreasonably delayed and in any event shall be held within fifteen (15) school days of the notification of charges unless mutually agreed to by both parties or delayed for reasons set forth in statute and/or regulation.
- The formal hearing shall observe the due process requirements of:
 1. Notification of the charges in writing by certified mail to the student's parent/guardian, including a copy of the district's expulsion policy, notice that legal counsel may represent the student and the district's hearing procedures.
 2. At least three (3) days notice of the time and place of the hearing.
 3. The hearing shall be private unless the student or parent/guardian requests a public hearing.
 4. The right to representation by counsel at the expense of the parent/guardian and the right to have parents/guardians attend the hearing.
 5. Disclosure of the names of witnesses and copies of written statements or affidavits of witnesses.
 6. The right to request such witnesses appear in person and answer questions or be cross-examined.
 7. The right to testify and present witnesses on the student's behalf.
 8. The hearing shall be held with all reasonable speed.
 9. Recording of the proceedings by stenographer or tape recorder.
 10. A copy of the transcript available at the student's expense.

- A written adjudication shall be issued after the Board has acted to expel a student. The adjudication may include additional conditions or sanctions.
- Consequences for misconduct are informed by a need to:
 - discipline students appropriately, and
 - Provide an opportunity for learning from the situation for all involved
 - Provide opportunity for the complainant to feel heard and taken seriously

NOTE: In all cases in which students are excluded from school by the action of a school official, students shall have the responsibility to make-up tests and work missed while being disciplined and shall be permitted to complete these assignments before or after the regular school day.

DEFINITIONS

Bullying (from policy 349)

Bullying means an intentional electronic, written, verbal or physical act or series of acts directed at another student or students, which occurs in a school setting that is severe, persistent or pervasive and has the effect of doing any of the following:[1]

1. Substantially interfering with a student's education.
2. Creating a threatening environment.
3. Substantially disrupting the orderly operation of the school.

Harassment (from policy 349)

Harassment is any gesture or written, verbal, graphic or physical act (including electronically transmitted acts – i.e. Internet, cell phone, personal digital assistant (PDA), or wireless handheld device) that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic such as race; color; religion; ancestry; national origin; gender; sexual orientation; gender identity and expression; mental, physical, or sensory disability or impairment; or by any other distinguishing characteristic. Such behavior is considered harassment or bullying, whether it takes place on or off school property, at any school-sponsored function, or in a school vehicle.

Discrimination (from policy 103)

Discrimination shall mean to treat individuals differently, or to harass or victimize based on a protected classification including race, color, age, creed, religion, sex, gender, gender identity, genetic information, sexual orientation, ancestry, national origin, marital status, pregnancy or handicap/disability.
